Many Housewives Attend Successful Event At McKinley Auditorium

Hailed as one of the most successful events of its kind ever held here, the Tribune's Happy Kitchen Cooking School was in its second session at McKinley School Auditorium on Duane St. yesterday afternoon with the concluding program under direction of Miss Nancy Baker set today at 2.

Scouting Faces Cessation Here Of Activities

$700 Sum Necessary To Continue Work; YMCA Also

Facing a financial crisis in Boy Scout work in the southern part of San Mateo County, scout leaders have begun a two-week drive to raise an additional $700 to assure continuance of the program here through the current year.

Decision to renew the financial campaign was made Tuesday when 30 determined scouts, scoutmasters, and citizens of south county towns met in the hall above the police station, with J. Elmer Morrish presiding, and talked over all phases of the scouting program.

When it was reported that unless the additional funds could be secured, Field Executive J. Frank Nearly 300 women attended the first session with more than 200 attending yesterday. New recipes are demonstrated on the stage by Miss Baker, who is a graduate of Iowa State College with a degree of bachelor of science in home economics. She also spent four years as a laboratory technician and took advanced work in dietetics in a mid-western hospital, then later taught in the foods and nutrition department in the college from which she was graduated.

Featured at the school are simple and inexpensive but delightful new recipes that produce intriguing dishes to add interest to the routine work of meal preparation. Miss Baker also shows how to make the most of sales events by buying supplies of food; how to prepare whole dinners hours ahead of time; how to make desserts days in advance—in fact, demonstrates all the tricks in economical cooking.

Housewives of the Redwood City district are urged to take advantage of the last session today, which, like the others, is free.

The first convict settlements in Siberia were established in 1710 when Peter the Great began exiling political opponents there.

teen more boys have expressed their desire to become scouts, but lack of leadership and facilities is preventing this expansion at present.

Scouts are the second group to renew their finance campaigns within the past week. The committee of the Young Men's Christian Association is seeking to raise $1000 in the entire county to assure continuance of Secty. Thomas W. Badley's work here through the year. Unless the money is raised, he, like Reid, will be forced to relinquish his work.

CAN YOU HELP SCOUTS OR YMCA WITH FUNDS?

Can you help the Boy Scouts, or do you wish to know something about the scouts? A telephone call to Scout Executive Reid at Redwood City 845-W or to Committee Chairman Kenneth W. Van Gundy at 383-M will bring a committee member to see you or either man will answer questions over the telephone.

Similar information about the YMCA can be obtained from Secty. Thomas W. Badley at Redwood City 2896-W or Committee Chairman Andrew Spinas at 722-M.

In Reid of Redwood City would be forced to give up his work in San Mateo County, it was decided to attempt to raise the extra money, and Robert Carmack was named chairman of a committee on this work.

ALL SPENT HERE

It was brought out that the $700 would be spent entirely in the southern part of San Mateo County, principally to pay Reid's salary and expenses. This would assure his working at least 50 per cent of the time between Belmont and the south county line, devoting the rest of his time to other parts of the county.

As a result of a report for scoutmasters by Victor Hugo, it was agreed that after this year this section of the county would insist on at least five representatives instead of two on the county scout council, made up of 24 members, at present headed by I. Karmel of Burlingame.

YMCA ALSO NEEDS FUNDS

Executive Reid also reported on his work, disclosing that there now are in south county scout work 324 Boy Scouts, 26 Sea Scouts, 47 cubs, and 78 scouters. One hundred fif-

NEW BUS SERVICE STARTED HERE

This is Redwood City's new bus, which started a 5-cent fare service over two routes here this week. A full schedule of arrivals and departures from various places along the routes appears elsewhere in this paper. Shown in the picture are Helen Ada Smith, secretary to City Manager C. L. Dimmitt, and D. E. Pipkin.

Huge Gasoline Truck Put In Service Here

Redwood City had its first visit yesterday from a 4320-gallon, 14-wheel streamline truck, just put in service by Shell Oil Co. to deliver gasoline direct from storage tanks at the San Francisco dock to Phillips 66 retail stations.

Use of the vehicle, whose capacity is about four times that of ordinary large delivery trucks, obviates necessity of shipping to local depots, then delivering to service stations, Local Manager A. R. Boyer explained.

Four hundred Basque children who had been sheltered in England for the past nine months returned to their homes in Bilbao recently.

Barn Dance Proves Real 'Old Timer'

Redwood City Municipal Band's Barn Dance was more like the old times than the old times themselves, according to veterans who watched a frolicsome crowd enjoy itself among the hay bales until an early hour yesterday.

Distinguished guests included County Executive and Mrs. E. A. Rolison, Mayor and Mrs. Louis C. Christensen, Councilman Paul A. McCarthy and others.

The iron furnace was invented by Lord Dudley in 1621.

Banker Addresses County Teachers

"Industrial Economics of Europe and America" were compared for between 65 and 75 San Mateo County teachers by F. T. Letchfield Monday when he spoke at a dinner meeting of the governing council of San Mateo County Teachers' Association at Sequoia High School Cafeteria.

Letchfield, an economist and consulting engineer, is assistant vice president of Wells-Fargo Bank and Union Trust Co. in San Francisco and is a member of the San Mateo High School Board of Education.

Musical entertainment was provided by a mixed student quartet—George Hildebrandt, Gerene Allberry, Robert Gleason and Eleanor Irwin—under direction of Otis M. Carrington, head of the Sequoia High School music department.

Clive Saiz of Jefferson Union High School, Daly City, presided as chairman, while arrangements for the dinner were directed by Mrs. Lauretta Paulsen, principal of McKinley Intermediate School.

The first schooner was designed and built in Gloucester, Mass., in 1713.

MENLO PARK NEWS NOTES

After 23 years of continued service as principal of the Menlo Park Central School, W. S. Bower has resigned and will retire to private life, being eligible for a pension. Mr. Bower has served his school faithfully and well and goes to his well-earned rest with a full appreciation by the parents, teachers and pupils of his earnest work and achievements for the school.

Laying of the Hetch Hetchy pipe line from Atherton to Mayfield is in full progress and will soon be completed. Water will be furnished Palo Alto, Mayfield and Stanford University, and later the line is to be extended to Moffett Field. The California Water Service here has been receiving the service for some time, having connected with the Hetch Hetchy main line near Atherton.

Mrs. Nellie M. O'Keefe, who passed away early Wednesday morning following a long illness, was well-known and highly respected not only in Menlo Park but on the Peninsula. She was born at Half Moon Bay. Shortly after her marriage to James T. O'Keefe, she came to live in Menlo Park, where she continued to reside.

In the days of her activity, Mrs. O'Keefe took a prominent part in the city's social and church affairs and was an earnest worker for every good cause. Mrs. O'Keefe is survived by her husband, James T. O'Keefe; a son, James T. O'Keefe Jr.; two daughters, Mrs. Ethel Buchanan and Mrs. Marcella Law of Phoenix, Ariz., and a granddaughter, Patricia Law.

Sheridan Downey, well-known attorney and politician, is now and has been for some time a resident of Atherton. Mr. Downey had been a resident of Sacramento since his boyhood. He was a candidate for lieutenant-governor in 1934 and is now an aspirant for U. S. senator on the progressive ticket. Downey is an able orator, capable of holding an audience for hours. He will be opposed by Senator McAdoo.

John O'Brien is about to retire as gardener at the Middlemas estate—a position he held for 17 years for the present owner, Miss Middlemas, and 20 years for the late A. J. Marcus. Mr. O'Brien well deserves this surcease of labor. He retires to his home on Oak Grove Ave. Mr. O'Brien has been a resident of Menlo Park for almost 50 years.

The Bear Gulch Lake is higher this year than at any time in its history. The dam has been overflowing for months as is also its auxiliary, Lake Lagunita, at Stanford University. There will be no shortage of water this year in this locality.

Weeden Bros. are remodeling the Stone Cellar in Atherton.

Two Slot Machines Seized Near R. C.

Playing a lone hand, Dep. Sheriff Louis Lodi raided the Oceana Inn on El Camino Real south of Redwood City, confiscated two slot machines and arrested John Angelopolos on charges of possessing illegal gambling devices. Angelopolos, free on $100 cash bail, will be tried Friday at 10 a. m. in Judge Edward J. McLaughlin's court. Lodi made the arrest Sunday when he found the two machines hidden in a closet.

Unemployable Number Gains

Aid to the needy aged, blind, orphans, and other unemployables in San Mateo County increased 39 per cent in number of cases aided between February, 1937, and February, 1938, according to a study

"Security for Unemployables," just made public by California Taxpayers Association.

The total number of cases aided in the county went from 530 in February, 1937, to 1334 in February, 1938, the association stated. The number of needy aged persons receiving aid increased 541 per cent, going from 499 to 769 during the period; blind persons aided went from 13 to 20, or a 53.8 per cent increase; orphans aided went from 190 to 230, or a 21.1 per cent increase; while the number of indigent unemployables went from 258 to 315, or a 22.1 per cent increase, the association found.

The welfare case load for unemployables for the state as a whole increased 36.1 per cent, the association found. This means a numerical increase in total case load in the 58 counties from 134,192 in February, 1937, to 182,607

Stack Back in Office, Plans for Campaign

County Controller Edward M. Stack, ill for many months, returned to his office Monday confident he will be able to carry on. "I expect to be here every day," Stack told inquirers. "Run for office? Sure I'll run for office. I've gained 12 pounds."

William A. Saliceti Succumbs Suddenly

William A. Saliceti, 60-year-old veteran of the Spanish-American War who lived on Arlington Ave., Atherton, passed away Tuesday night at the home of his sister, Mrs. Fred Braddock, in 7therton, apparently of a heart attack.

Mr. Saliceti, father of David and James Saliceti and brother of Mrs. D. M. Garvey of Burlingame, was a native of Mayfield.

FIRE DAMAGES MENLO J. C.
MENLO PARK, May 2—Damage estimated at $45 was caused by a fire which originated in an electric motor at the Menlo Junior College yesterday afternoon. Equipment from the Menlo Park Fire District was summoned and the blaze was confined to the school refrigeration plant.

Henry Fielding, 18th century English novelist, was at one time justice of the peace for Westminster.

H. L. Putnam Elected To Lead State Group

Harold L. Putnam, 303 Durlston Rd., Redwood City, has been elected state president of the Sons of the American Revolution. Putnam is a member of the San Francisco chapter of the patriotic society, having served on its board of managers for six years.

Mail stage-coaches were not introduced into England until 1784.

Full-Time Head For Community Hospital Urged

County Health Board Favors Major Hayes For Position

The San Mateo County Board of Health and Welfare, recently criticized for inactivity by Grand Jury Foreman Percy J. Shaw, Tuesday made two recommendations:

1. Creation of a full-time position of superintendent of Community Hospital in place of the present part-time office held by Dr. Alan Benner, who resigned May 1.

2. Appointment of Dr. H. W. F. Hayes of Hillsborough to the new full-time position.

The board forwarded letters containing the two recommendations to Dr. Charles C. Gans, director of health and welfare, and to County Executive E. A. Rolison. Appointment must be made by Dr. Gans and confirmed by the executive.

CONFIDENCE GAME VICTIM
Dr. Hayes is the Major Hayes in the Mrs. Ella Van Why "confidence game" case now pending in the district attorney's office. Dr. Hayes was one of the persons who disclosed to Asst. Dist. Atty. Daniel E. Sullivan how the Belmont divorcee is alleged to have bilked five known victims, including Major Hayes and his wife, of nearly $22,000.

In recommending that a full-time superintendent be appointed, the health board last night pointed out that (1) the question has been before several grand juries, (2) administration problems are increasing, (3) the present system is inadequate and places the county in jeopardy, (4) there is an inherent conflict between private practice and administrative duties of any practicing physician employed on part-time basis, and (5) the charter expressly prohibits private practice.

ACT AS ADMINISTRATOR
Under the new plan, it was explained, Dr. Hayes would be placed in administrative charge of the hospital but would not act as a practicing doctor in medicine or surgery. Eugene Clapp, acting superintendent, would continue as business manager, it was understood.

Dr. Hayes was selected after his qualifications had been inspected, it was announced.

Present at the session were Dr. Will Rebec, Dr. N. D. Morrison Sr., Mrs. R. E. Longwell, and Louis Goeken. Miss Pansy Jewett Abbott, ex-officio secretary of the board, was absent to attend a school institute meeting in San Mateo.

Hand firearms were first used in the 15th century.

Contractor Guilty On Wage Violation

MENLO PARK, May 4—Charged with violation of the state labor code involving the regular payment of wages, I. M. Sommer, San Francisco contractor, was found guilty on one count and not guilty on three today in the city court of Judge E. J. Ryan.

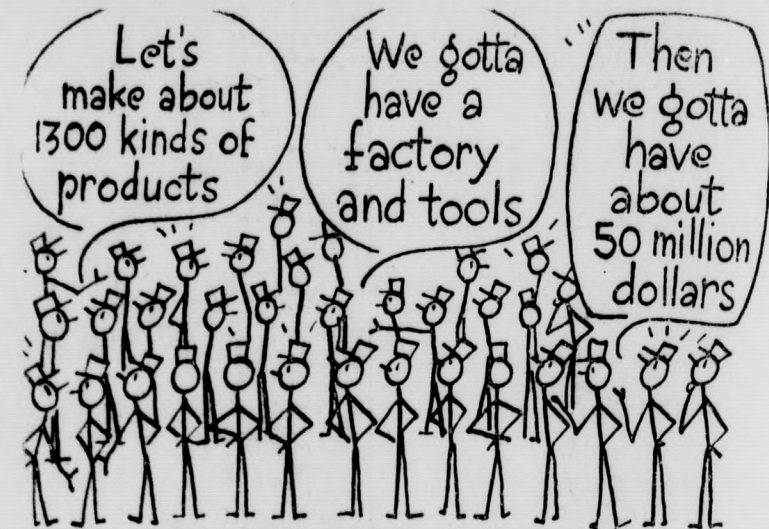

Judge Ryan set Monday at 4 p.m. as time for sentence. Maximum penalty is a $500 fine or six months in jail.

H. O. Williams of 112 Cedar St., Redwood City, and P. H. White of San Francisco had signed the complaint. The violation occurred during construction of a house on Yale Rd. last summer.

$500 Judgment Won In Auto Crash Suit

Where he had asked $5000 damages, Alvin Davis will collect $500 from State Senator Chris Jespersen of Atascadero, his chauffeur, H. Wilkins, and Mrs. Jennie Jespersen as the result of an accident on Bayshore Hwy. near San Mateo Dec. 12, 1935. That was the decision of Superior Judge Warren V. Tryon, announced here following trial of the case here Feb. 23. Otto Garbe, who had sued also, asking $25,150, was denied damages, as were the defendants, who had filed a cross complaint.

TWO LETTERS OF INTEREST TO REDWOOD CITY8,000 MEN ON A VACANT LOT*1 DEAR JOHNS-MANVILLE REDWOOD CITY PLANT—

Help me get straight on this Capital and Labor thing. What is their relationship? Why shouldn't they always be friends?

GEORGE CITIZEN

2 Dear George

One mistake I think a lot of people make is going around talking about Capital and Labor with a big AND.

I believe I can reduce this whole thing to simple terms by turning it all inside out. We usually think of capital employing men. For once, let's think of working men needing capital.

Let's suppose that where I stand now there is a vacant lot instead of me—a factory.

8,000 men (which is the number of employees in all Johns-Manville factories and mines) gather one morning on this vacant lot.

The 8,000 workers soon find that in order to get presidents and officers who can manage big companies successfully they run into a lot of competition. They may have to pay many thousands a year to get the kind of men they need. The idea of this makes some of them a little mad, but they realize that if they're going to pool together and make and sell over $60,000,000 worth of goods a year, they have to pay what capable management is worth or else some other group of 8,000 or 10,000 workers will get it and take away their business.

Finally, they see they have to have about 2,000 other people to make out bills, type letters, run errands, draw pay checks and do a lot of other things.

They wind up with about 11,000 people, all working to make and sell things and get them into the customer's hands.

They realize this is a pretty complicated business, and that they can't simply sit down on this vacant lot and start to make asbestos shingles, or automobile brake linings, rock wool or anything else.

They figure a while and learn it will take about fifty million dollars to build the factories, get the mines and buy the complicated machinery they'll need to give themselves jobs.

Gosh! They haven't got it. So-o-o-o, the first thing they have to do is to find some people with fifty million dollars and "rent" it from them. This rent is called "dividends." They eventually find more than 7,000 people who have enough confidence in their ability to put up the fifty million smackers. These people hope to make about six cents a year for each dollar they rent out, but there is no guarantee they will get their six cents. They have to gamble on the ability of the 8,000 men to make things which will sell at a profit.

Then the 8,000 workmen realize they've got to have somebody go out and sell their products to the world. They find later it takes about 900 salesmen to keep their output sold.

They soon see they'll have to have over 100 especially trained men to figure up more and newer products for them to make—research men.

Then they see they've got to have some generals to run things. You can't just have 8,000 men and 900 salesmen and over 100 research men, each pounding nails or mixing pancakes or ringing doorbells on his own hook.

What I've done here is to draw a picture in reverse of my company—Johns-Manville—as it is today.

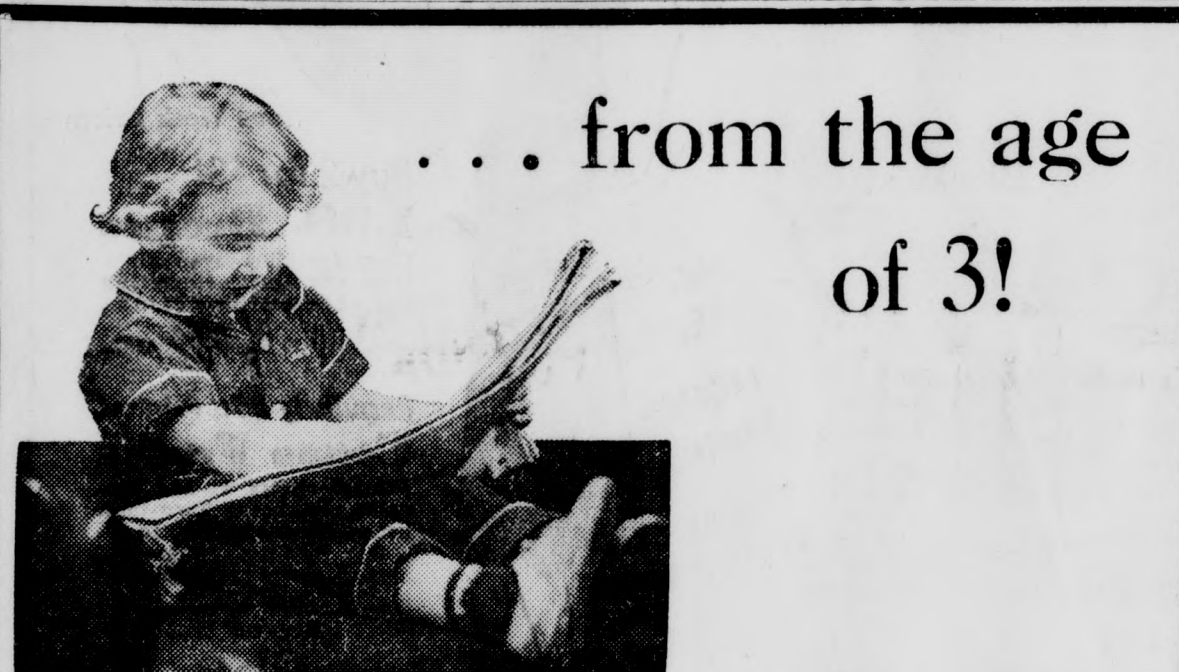

I thought to do this might give us all a better picture of the answer to your question about the true relationship between Capital and Labor.

... from the age of 3!

When does a child start to read a newspaper? Here is the answer—obtained from a careful survey—and it will surprise you!

- youngsters of twelve read editorials through
- children eight years old scan the front page
- and the funnies are "looked at" by tots of three!

In a word, children read newspapers as soon as they can read at all. That gives a newspaper publisher a big responsibility and hands the editor a tough job.

We try to make our paper the kind of paper you will be glad to let your child read. We think of our children readers every day when we "make up" your Redwood City Tribune. There is news you want and need, occasionally, that you'd probably rather not have your children see. We try hard to put it where they won't see it. And we avoid sensational or suggestive headlines and news treatment for that very reason.

There's a lot of news and features that you and your children's teachers want your boys and girls to read: church activities, Boy Scout and Girl Scout news, club doings; news and features especially edited for your children. We try to put that kind of news where they will see it, with nothing near it unsuitable for boys and girls. Our biggest job is to keep the Tribune a family newspaper. It's not an easy assignment, but it is an important one!

Mr. Advertiser:

It's important to you, too, that we have made the Tribune a family newspaper—a newspaper that children can read. You know why it's important to you and we feel that you'll be glad to know we are going to continue that policy and improve on what we have already done.

Mexico Joins S. F. World's Fair

Mexico will be a major participant in the 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition on Treasure Island in San Francisco Bay, and here Senorita Hortense Melero, Mexican beauty, christens the International Signpost on the island. Senorita Melero was sent by the Mexican Consul General as a representative of Mexico on an official visit to the site of next year's World's Fair of the West. In colorful native costume, she typifies Mexico's "fair sex" at its best.

'Lights Out' In M. P. Areas

It's going to be "lights out" for certain areas bordering the Menlo Park Lighting District on July 1 unless these areas annex themselves to the lighting district, according to the board of supervisors.

At Tuesday's session a communication from Dep. Controller George Elbert reminded the board that an error in the lighting district boundaries disclosed last fall that certain property owners in North Fair Oaks could not be assessed for lights already installed. The necessary funds were transferred from unbudgeted reserve to keep the globes burning until the end of the fiscal year.

The board authorized a letter to the North Fair Oaks Improvement Club advising it of the situation, and warning that darkness will descend July 1 unless income is provided to pay the P.G.&E. for the extra service outside of the district.

Request of the advisory committee of the Ravenswood Water District for an increase in rates was referred to County Executive E. A. Rolison. Included in the request was an increase from $6 to $10 for meter installation charges, monthly minimum of $1 for 300 cubic feet instead of 50 cents for 100 cubic feet, and an increase in salary for the meter reader from $33 to $50 a month.

Flying for Fair

Frank W. Fuller Jr., air speed king, watches while pretty Zoe Dell Lantis, the "most photographed girl in the world" puts finishing touches to a Golden Gate Exposition emblem on Fuller's plane in which he will attempt new inter-city records this year. Fuller, Bendix trophy race winner, has been appointed "Chief Pilot" for the 1939 World's Fair of the West, on Treasure Island in San Francisco Bay.

Council Names Architect For Library, Hall

Plans To Be Drawn To Take Advantage Of PWA Funds

The proposal to construct a new library, and possibly an addition to the city hall, in Redwood City was furthered Monday when the council voted to employ an architect and decided to lay plans to share in any federal funds for the projects that might be available.

Named as architect, provided that suitable terms can be agreed on, was James H. Mitchell of Burlingame, recommended to the council by its own committee and by the Redwood City Library Board of Trustees, who met last week.

City Atty. Albert Mansfield was directed to prepare suitable contracts whereby Architect Mitchell would be directed to draw plans both for a library, to be constructed on city-owned property adjacent to the city hall, and for an addition to the hall.

COST ESTIMATED
Each building, it was estimated, will cost in the neighborhood of $65,000, but may be more or less, depending finally on the type and size of building agreed on. Financing would be by bond issue, either in whole or in part, depending on whether or not the U. S. Congress makes PWA grants available. It was brought out that the government might also lend the money for the remainder, if the President's spending-lending program is approved.

Million Dollar Link Is Next

An early start on the million dollar Lobitos-Bean Hollow sector of the Ocean Shore Highway was in prospect today as the result of a luncheon meeting Monday of civic leaders and officials of three counties with State Director of Public Works Earl Lee Kelly and Chairman H. R. Judah of the California Highway Commission. At the meeting, held in Moss Beach, both Kelly and Judah cited benefits of the new road as a recreational and as a utility highway, and declared they were confident that if San Francisco County would appropriate its pro rata without delay, work could be started and finished at an early date. As a result, the executive committee of the Ocean Shore Highway Association sent the following telegram to the San Francisco board: "Respectfully suggest and urge your honorable board adopt resolution favorable to four-year plan suggested by state to allow for speediest possible completion of Ocean Shore Highway. Involves $66,000 a year from San Francisco. Of the estimated cost of $1,000,000, the state pays half, the counties paying as follows each year for four years: San Francisco, $66,000; San Mateo, $42,000; Santa Cruz, $12,000. The present 17-mile stretch under the new survey would be reduced to an 11-mile modern roadway. George E. Dunn, Half Moon Bay publisher and president of the highway association, greeted the guests and Fred Meyer, a member of the association's directorate and the representative of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, acted as toastmaster. Speakers on behalf of the road were Dunn, Mayor Louis C. Christensen of Redwood City, Supervisors Alvin S. Hatch of Half Moon Bay and Fred E. Beer of San Carlos, County Manager E. A. Rolison, Sam H. Winklebleck of Redwood City and Harry Butler of San Mateo. The building and grounds of the White House cover about 16 acres.

Coast Gun Factory Urged on Congress
WASHINGTON, May 5 (AP)—Representative Carter (R., Calif.) drafted a bill today to create a commission of naval officers to investigate the need for establishing a naval gun factory on the Pacific Coast. The commission also would look into the advisability of providing additional gun repair facilities on the coast.
